

ESA Waiver Agreement

ESA is committed to providing safe programs for our participants. We assess all of our programs and activities and in doing so, seek to minimise any inherent risks. ESA's Waiver Policy is a condition of our insurance. By registering for an ESA Camp or activity, participants and/or their parents/guardians agree to be bound by this waiver agreement.

- I understand that the program activities may contain, but not be limited to outdoor adventurous activities such as high and low rope courses; fishing, canoeing and swimming; mountain biking; dirt bikes, bushwalking, hiking and navigating; camping; meal preparation and open flame cooking; flying fox; beach activities; and problem-solving initiatives.
- I understand that the Participant may partake or choose not to partake in these activities.
- I understand the inherent risks of this programme and give permission for the Participant to partake.
- I understand that while all appropriate precautions will be taken, the programme activities carry an inherent element of risk that may result in injury. I accept the risks involved and take responsibility for the participants own actions and/or involvement.
- If anything is unclear in the briefing or information provided, I will seek clarification from a representative of ESA Country Ministries about the inherent risks associated with the programme and its activities.
- To the best of my knowledge, the participant is physically and emotionally able to participate in the advertised activities and I know of no reason why they should not.
- I understand that by choosing to participate, or granting approval to participate, in the programme I agree to indemnify ESA Country Ministries against claims for personal injuries that may result, except to the extent that the ESA Country Ministries has been found negligent.
- I understand that this Declaration and Indemnity will be retained by ESA Country Ministries and stored in accordance with Privacy Legislation; that the information will be used only to facilitate the provision of a safe and enjoyable experience for the programme Participants; that the Participant may update incorrect information, or inspect information held about them by ESA Country Ministries.
- I agree to contact ESA Country Ministries on +61 3 9837 5225 or via email camps@esa.org.au if I do not fully understand and agree with this Declaration and Indemnity
